My dream is to make beautiful things for people who love them. I pride myself in being a highly dedicated, hardworking, and self-motivated person. I have an eye for color and pattern and enjoy creating striking color and texture combinations. I enjoy using these skills when creating stand-alone logos or characters, various print materials, and coding websites or manipulating website templates to be unique. I would love to share my love of design and upbeat attitude with clients that share these same values.
